Preamble

The 23rd Annual WAIPA General Assembly and World Investment Conference 2018, called for “A New Era in Foreign Direct Investment” focus on empowerment and enhancement of IPAs capacities and their corporate development with the support of international bodies in global community.

Held at Xiamen International Conference Center alongside The China International Fair for Investment and Trade (CIFIT) reflecting of a broadened business community, the 2 days Conference gathered a hundred leading investment promotion agencies (IPAs), international organization’s leaders, heads of financial institutions, leading political figures, private sector representatives, economists and researchers from more than 60 countries around the world.

This year’s agenda emphasized that foreign direct investments were vital to maintain and strengthen economic growth. FDI boost technological innovation, know-how transfer, contributes to job creation and adds productive capacity to the global economy. In recent years, we witnessed an ever-growing flow of FDI from developed into developing countries. However, also FDI from developing economies to developing ones grows steadily, creating thus beneficial spill overs through FDI all around the world contributing directly to welfare and prosperity.

The following three debate sessions were hosted during the WIC 2018 in Xiamen:

- Increasing Domestic Value Addition (DVA) through FDI: How to link local enterprises with FDI companies in the country
- Business impacts through technology and partnerships
- The rise of subnational IPAs. What does the future bring?

Conference also included various types of workshops conducted by FDI experts, member IPAs, and related institutions focusing on best practices in attracting FDI. The participants of these workshops had opportunity to discover new practices about determining target sectors and target companies, efficient use of digital tools for marketing purposes, determining FDI with sustainable characteristics, and other contemporary practices regarding investment promotion.
The Sequence of General Assembly
